First Nations Health Council Engagement Update

Spring 2019 Regional Governance Caucus

Engagement Satisfaction Level

Engagement Feedback

The FNHC have collected feedback from BC First Nations Chiefs and Caregivers and the following provides a summary on areas of improvement:

- Be responsive to the needs of Chiefs and Caregivers,
- Provide adequate space on agendas for questions,
- Incorporate ceremony and culture,
- Create space for communities to share promising practices
- Maintain the separation of business and politics,
- Reduce the demand on leaders' and caregivers' time.

Evolving Engagement

- There is a significant volume of planned engagement activities this year.
- Based on feedback given by leaders and caregivers at Regional Caucus sessions, the engagement structure is evolving to:
 - Separate governance and service conversations,
 - Reduce the overall demand on Chiefs' and Health Directors' time
 - Simplify and streamline engagement activities and reporting back
- Spring 2019 piloted a new approach to engagement, where
 - Political discussions will occur at Regional Governance Caucuses
 - Technical health service engagement will occur at Regional Health and Wellness forums.

Gathering Wisdom X

- Gathering Wisdom for a Shared Journey X will be held in January 2020, at the Vancouver Convention Centre.
- Potential objectives for the forum include:
 - An update on the commitment to build and renovate treatment centres,
 - An update on work towards a ten-year strategy on social determinants of health,
 - The results of the Health Governance Evaluation.

Evaluating the New Approach

- 2019 is a learning year.
- The participation of chiefs and leaders is critical as we move forward.
- We will provide evaluations at the end of each session. Please let us know your thoughts on the evolving engagement structure.
- FNHC, FNHA, and FNHDA to evaluate ongoing engagement structure based on evaluation data and will report back.
