Position Summary

We are currently seeking Home Support Workers to join our Health team in the Lillooet area which serves the First Nations communities of T'it'q'et. Are you dedicated to delivering patient-centered care? Are you looking for a flexible work schedule? If the answer is 'yes' then we want to hear from you!

T'it'q'et believes in the concept of "Circle of Care" or "Wrap-around" approach to client care. As a Home Support Worker, you will work as part of a dynamic team of Nurses and LPNs who support Community Clients' independence and ability to stay at home. Home Support Workers provide home support services to clients, by assisting with personal care and daily living, while promoting maximum independence. Home Support Workers are key players in the home health care plan for each client.

Typical duties include:

- Activities of daily personal care, such as bathing, dressing, grooming and oral hygiene
- Household duties related to maintaining a safe and healthy environment in the home
- Meal preparation in accordance with designated plans
- Assistance with mobility and transfers
- Observing and reporting changes in client behaviour and condition
- Performing delegated tasks according with training and procedures

Work requirements may vary to a maximum of 35 hours per week. Services are provided in the community between the hours of 08:00 and 16:00, five (5) days per week.

Health Care Aides job description for Alberta

For people with certain health issues, age-related limitations or other disabilities, managing everyday tasks can be challenging. The support that we provide through the Home Support program enables clients to recover or simply remain at home rather than in a hospital or care facility – in many cases our visits can be the highlight of their day!

If you are looking for an opportunity to do meaningful work while joining a great team, the T'it'q'et Health team is the place for you.
