In recognition of the critical importance to this role of a lived understanding of Indigenous communities, history, values, and cultural competencies, this competition is restricted to Indigenous applicants. To assist us with screening, please ensure your application clearly indicates that you self-identify as an Indigenous person.

The Representative for Children and Youth, an independent officer of the B.C. Legislature, works to influence positive change to B.C.'s child-, youth- and young adult-serving system. The Representative's Office provides advocacy support to people dealing with the service system and advocates directly on behalf of children, youth and young adults, monitors and reviews government services to children and youth and reviews and sometimes investigates deaths and critical injuries of children and youth who are receiving services.

The Senior Project Lead develops and leads strategic initiatives and projects that assess designated services under the Representative for Children and Youth Act and generate recommendations for their improvement. The Senior Project Lead supports and manages project teams of RCY staff, manages contracts with external consultants, and builds positive working relationships with external experts and key stakeholder groups. With experience in designing and conducting quantitative and qualitative research, the Senior Project Lead uses a variety of methodologies and techniques to monitor and research issues impacting the well-being of children and youth across B.C. The Senior Project Lead also develops and applies tools for assessing and strengthening the maturity of quality improvement within designated services and monitors government progress towards implementing recommendations made by the Representative.
