

Cultural Humility and Nursing in BC

Dr. Becky Palmer

Chief Nursing Officer – First Nations Health Authority

Inez Louis

Nursing Supervisor – Sto:lo Service Agency

Lisa Sam

Community Health Nurse – Nak'azdli Health Centre

First Nations Health Authority
Health through wellness

BC PATIENT SAFETY
& QUALITY COUNCIL
Working Together. Accelerating Improvement.

Opening Prayer

Introductions

LISA SAM

INEZ LOUIS

DR. BECKY PALMER

Cultural Humility and Nursing in BC

Do you want to help socialize and promote cultural safety and humility in your organization and the greater health care system?

Visit www.fnha.ca/culturalhumility to download a pledge card!

- 1) Print the card
- 2) Make a commitment
- 3) Snap a photo
- 4) Hashtag #itstartswithme on social media or email it: media@fnha.ca

CALL TO ACTION

We encourage all nurses who may work with First Nations or Aboriginal Peoples to begin a journey of self-education and openness to learn about the Communities/Peoples they serve.

This can include visiting the FNHA cultural humility portal www.fnha.ca/culturalhumility, and taking the PHSA San'yas Indigenous Cultural Competency Training.

---

Make your pledge today!

Follow on Twitter: @hadihtoyou | @FNHA | @BCPSQC | #ItStartsWithMe | #CulturalHumility

Questions/Discussion

Webinar: Noon – 1:00

JUNE 7, 2017

---

Follow on Twitter: @hadihtoyou | @FNHA | @BCPSQC | #ItStartsWithMe | #CulturalHumility

Cultural Safety & Humility in Action

- Northern Health
- Resources for ensuring care is accessible, safe, clear and welcoming for Indigenous people in the north

Survey

