

EVERYONE IS A WELLNESS CHAMPION

Time to Live it!

The First Nations Health Authority (FNHA) envisions healthy, self-determining and vibrant BC First Nations children, families, and communities playing an active role in decision-making regarding their personal and collective wellness.

Organizations, schools, and agencies that are engaged in direct health services delivery to BC First Nations and/or Aboriginal people may be eligible for funding to host a Community-Driven Winter Wellness event or initiative.

Applications will be weighed against the following criteria:

- Inclusion of the theme of “Everyone is a wellness champion – time to live it,”
- A focus on one or more of the FNHA Wellness Streams,
- Collaboration and partnerships with other communities, demonstrated at the regional, or sub-regional level, and
- Fairness and equity within and across the five regions.

To be eligible, the event or initiative must be held between: January 1 – February 22, 2019.

Deadline for applications is November 23, 2018.
