

First Nations Health Authority

Board of Director – Director at Large

The First Nations Health Authority (FNHA) is the first province-wide First Nations health authority of its kind in Canada. Through direct service delivery and partnerships we seek to transform the health and well-being of BC's First Nations and Aboriginal people by dramatically changing healthcare for the better.

RESPONSIBILITIES

The key governance functions of the FNHA Board of Directors include:

- Developing, implementing, and monitoring a strategic plan(s).
- Implementing a reporting system to measure and communicate on performance.
- Approving and complying with policies.
- Approving and monitoring budgets.
- Ensuring appropriate risk management processes and systems are in place.
- Providing direction to, and monitoring the performance of, the Chief Executive Officer.

COMPETENCIES

FNHA Board members require a broad range of skills and experience. The competencies sought include:

- Private health sector experience with strong financial and business background.
- Extensive and proven experience in successfully running a large operation or working at a senior management level.
- Experience with First Nations, federal and provincial health systems, programs and services.
- Experience in tripartite processes and partnership building with governments and organizations.
- A high degree of cultural competency and knowledge of BC First Nations communities.
- Experience in strategic planning, health planning, financial planning, and community development.
