

What Matters? Measuring Improvements in Mental Health and Wellness

Sarah Kastelic, PhD, MSW
Executive Director
National Indian Child Welfare Association

NICWA

National Indian Child Welfare Association
Protecting Our Children • Preserving Our Culture

Spring 2019 Vancouver Coastal Regional Caucus
Whistler, BC
June 18, 2019

Project Deliverables

- Through community-engaged processes, gather mental health and wellness outcomes that matter to stakeholders
- Use desired outcomes to build a measurement framework to track progress

NICWA

National Indian Child Welfare Association
Protecting Our Children • Preserving Our Culture

Prior NICWA Work

- What is a successful Native youth in Portland, Oregon?
- What does a successful Native couple look like?
- What family strengths should be captured in a child abuse/neglect report?
- What outcomes does the community want for its citizens?

NICWA

National Indian Child Welfare Association
Protecting Our Children • Preserving Our Culture

Relational Worldview

Native and Tribal Thought

BALANCE

Relational Worldview

Individual and Family Level

Sample Outcomes

- Connectedness: “Family relationships intact, family integrity, unity, interdependence”
- Healthy relationships: “Harmonious days with partner, consistency, continuity of relationships, positive regard”
- Service to others: “Helping family, community, elders; kindness; generosity; group orientation; relying on each other”

NICWA

National Indian Child Welfare Association
Protecting Our Children • Preserving Our Culture

Table Top Dialogue

In sub-regional groups:

- Describe a mentally and emotionally well child and family
- List characteristics of mentally and emotionally well people
- Describe services that promote wellness
- List traditional teachings that promote wellness

NICWA

National Indian Child Welfare Association
Protecting Our Children • Preserving Our Culture

Report Out

What themes came out of your conversation?

What are the desired outcomes associated with being mentally healthy and well?

NICWA

National Indian Child Welfare Association
Protecting Our Children • Preserving Our Culture

Continue the Conversation

Join me at my table for more conversation tomorrow morning, complete an online survey, or participate in an interview.

NICWA

National Indian Child Welfare Association
Protecting Our Children • Preserving Our Culture

Thank you

NICWA

National Indian Child Welfare Association
Protecting Our Children • Preserving Our Culture

www.nicwa.org